FESTIVAL FAVORITE BRULÉ RETURNS TO LANDMARK PLAZA STAGE

(OMAHA, Neb.) May 31, 2017 – Award-winning contemporary Native American group Brulé will be the exclusive performer on the Landmark Plaza Stage at the 43rd annual Omaha Summer Arts Festival (OSAF).

OSAF is presented by First National Bank and takes place in downtown Omaha June 9-11 on Farnam Street alongside the Gene Leahy Mall. Hours are 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, June 9, and Saturday, June 10; and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday, June 11.

The Landmark Plaza Stage is located on the south side of Farnam Street (between 11th and 13th Streets). Brulé is planning to play several sets from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Friday and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

Through the years, Brulé—founded by Paul LaRoche—has pushed the boundaries of contemporary Native American rhythms and classic rock in their genre-blending selections. The five-piece rock ensemble is augmented with an array of traditional Native American instrumentation and paired with one of the top Native American dance troupes, creating a one-of-a-kind, multi-dimensional art form and musical journey.

About The Omaha Summer Arts Festival

Named the 2016 “Best Festival” in Omaha Magazine’s Best of Omaha awards, OSAF is consistently recognized as one of Omaha’s best annual events. OSAF also receives consistent honors in the art fair industry including being selected as one of 2015’s Top 100 Fine Arts Festivals in the country by ArtFair SourceBook. National honors include being tagged as one of the “Top 20 Can’t-Miss Summer Festivals” by Smithsonian.com in 2014, and as one of the Top 100 Events in North America by the American Bus Association in 2011.
